

Woodland Consultant - Trees for Life Woodland Services

Job Title	Woodland Consultant
Salary	Commensurate with experience
Location	Findhorn – with regular travel throughout Scotland
Post	Full time, 35 hours per week, permanent
Closing Date	Tuesday 31 August 2020 12pm

Background

Trees for Life Woodland Services is a management consultancy specialising in native woodland creation, restoration and management across the Scottish Highlands. We utilise the expertise and experience of our parent charity and forest managers to help organisations and landowners seeking a trusted agent to help deliver woodland restoration and expansion projects.

As a social enterprise, 100% of profits generated from the business go directly towards furthering the core work of our parent charity, Trees for Life, helping to realise the vision of a revitalised wild forest in the Scottish Highlands, providing space for wildlife to flourish and communities to thrive.

For more information on Trees for Life and Woodland Services please see our website's tflws.com and treesforlife.org.uk.

Opportunity

With the business now entering its third year, we have a fantastic opportunity for a forestry professional with a passion for ecological restoration and pinewood management to deliver our consultancy service. The role will be focused around the planning and implementation of a range of woodland management and creation projects, including successful FGS applications, and carbon accreditation. The successful applicant will be part of an innovative business enterprise within the wider charity.

Key Personal Qualities

- Passion for the role of woodland in landscape restoration with a particular interest in, and knowledge of, woodland ecology.
- Connect deeply with the work and core values of Trees for Life.
